

CORNER-STONE LAID FOR GREAT TEMPLE

Grand Lodge of North Carolina Has Impressive Ceremonial at Raleigh.

THE PRINCIPLES OF MASONRY

Grand Master Winston Emphasizes These in His Brief Address.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 16.—The principal feature of the State Fair events here to-day was the ceremony of laying the corner-stone for the North Carolina Grand Lodge Masonic Temple, preparations for which had been in progress the past several weeks. There was an immense crowd and the exercises were of the most interesting character.

The ceremony proceeded the ceremonies at the temple was brilliant. It moved up Fayetteville Street, around Capitol Square, and thence back down Fayetteville Street to the temple, where the ceremonies prescribed for such Masonic events began at once. The procession was headed by a platoon of police, and the order of the line was: Chief Marshall, Carl A. Woodruff, retired army officer, and aides; two companies North Carolina National Guard; cadets Agricultural and Mechanical College, Raleigh; Fire Department, Grand Commander Knights Templar as escort for the Grand Lodge, officers of the Grand Lodge Master Masons of the Grand Lodge.

The Ceremonies.
For the ceremony there was music at intervals by a chorus of forty voices and the Third Regiment Band. The invocation was by Rev. Frederick Nash Skinner, grand chaplain. Hon. James Richardson, head of the Masonic fraternity in America, was to have delivered the principal address, but was unable to be here, and this honor fell to General W. R. Cox, of Edgecombe county, chairman of the Grand Lodge committee, having in hand the erection of the temple. He reviewed the efforts in the past on the part of North Carolina Masons to erect a temple for the Grand Lodge in Raleigh, this, the successful one, being the third in the State history of Masonry. General Cox was heard with interest.

Grand Master's Address.
The only other address for the occasion was that by Hon. Francis D. Winston, grandmaster of the Grand Lodge, who had charge of the ceremony. His address was brief, but delightful to the great audience to a degree. He said in part:

We have among us concealed from the eyes of all men secrets that cannot be divulged and which have never been found out. These secrets are lawful and honorable and not repugnant to the laws of God or man. They were entrusted in peace and honor to the Masons of ancient times, and having been faithfully transmitted to us, it is our duty to convey the unimpaired to the latest posterity. Unless our craft were lost, our cause honorable we should not have lasted for so many centuries. Nor should we have been honored with the patronage of so many illustrious men of all ages who have ever shown themselves ready to promote our interests and defend us from all adversaries.

The principles of Masonry have become the inheritance of society, to help the helpless, to raise up the fatherless, to relieve the poor, to give to all human beings an equal chance in life, to instruct the ignorant and especially to train up children and provide for widows and orphans; these cardinal principles of our fraternity, limited as they were at first in their applications, have by their excellence and ability commended themselves to the approbation and emulation of the civilized world, and to-day in imitation of Masonry the world stands ready to do some good work.

Our first care is the orphan child; to place him on a level with the help of thousands. This is the teaching of the Nazarene. Masonry first gave it

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can Be Instantly Stopped.

Sample Package Mailed Free.

Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning. That awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your breath will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk with you. You've had onions, or you've been eating cabbage and all of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

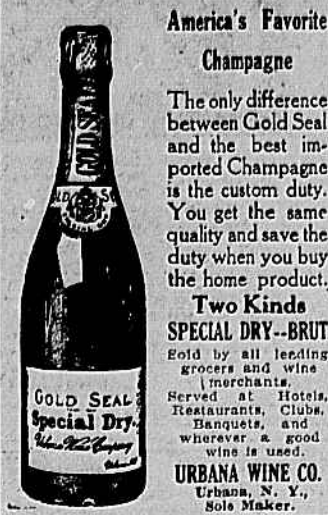

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place are good for the stomach, and the breaking of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk. Your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste much better. You at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines all the impurities there massed together and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as a deodorizer. Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm. In fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These lozenges are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address: Stuart's Charcoal Co., 400 Stuart St., Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

MR. BRYAN GUEST AT GREENSBORO FAIR

Thousands Greet the Commoner and Cheer His Address on the Average Man.

ATTENDS BANQUET AT NIGHT

Meets 400 Leading Men of the State and Speaks on Political Issues.

GREENSBORO, N. C., October 16.—The perfect weather, ideal transportation facilities, the attractions of the Central Carolina Fair exhibits and racing, added to the star feature of the presence of Governor Glenn and William Jennings Bryan, conspired to bring thousands of visitors to Greensboro to-day.

Mr. Bryan was met at the station by the reception committee, which later occupied seats on the speakers' stand, and following a long line of marshals, was escorted to the Fair Grounds. His approach to the grounds was heralded by the cheering of people from a distance, and his arrival was greeted by an impulsive outburst of cheers that showed how welcome was the guest of the day.

Speech at the Fair.
Mr. Bryan's address, which was the same delivered in Fayetteville, Charlotte and Richmond, was on "The Average Man," and consumed two hours. During every minute of the time he was listened to by the 4,000 who occupied the grandstand. Facing the 3,000 who stood in the paddock of the race track, every seat was filled. His voice, he spoke from an improvised platform immediately in front of the grandstand.

Around him on the platform sat the escort committee—Governor R. B. Glenn, ex-Governor C. D. Aycock, Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville; Colonel Lane, of Chatham county; Congressman R. N. Page, Chief Marshal C. D. McMichael, Judge James E. Boyd, ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, Major Charles M. Stedman, ex-Judge R. M. Douglas, Colonel A. L. Fairbrother, Solicitor A. L. Brooks, Senator Lee S. Overman, Messrs. G. S. Bradshaw, E. J. Justice, and Van Story, John L. King and J. W. Forbis. Governor Glenn, in a ringing four-minute speech, introduced Mr. Bryan. For several minutes the Nebraskan was unable to proceed, awaiting the cessation of a noisy welcome. After speaking the reception committee and Mr. Bryan were driven to the residence of Solicitor A. L. Brooks, where luncheon was served.

After this reception was held at the State Normal College, where Mr. Bryan charmed 600 lady students with a short talk. This was followed by a reception to the public in the rooms of the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, the crush there being great.

Banquet at Night.
At 7:40 Mr. Bryan and party went to the banquet hall, where 400 covers were laid. Every seat at the table in the immense Neese Hall was filled with diners, the galleries being occupied by lady guests, who accompanied the holders of tickets. The banquet was a political feast given by the Democratic executive committee. County Chairman A. M. Scales being toastmaster. Toasts were responded to.

HIS RESIDENCE BURNED.
Home of Mr. Fine, of Boydton, Destroyed by Fire.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYDTON, VA., October 16.—The home of Mr. Fine, a prominent merchant, of Boydton, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire began in the servant's room in the attic, and is supposed to have originated from the explosion of a lamp. The flames were first noticed by neighbors about the 6 o'clock. The citizens, white and colored, fought manfully to subdue the fire, but it was all in vain in stemming the devouring element, which soon reduced this beautiful residence to ashes. The property belonged to Mr. Howard Beale, treasurer-elect of Mecklenburg, who only received a deed to the property from ex-Congressman Thorpe on Monday last. Mr. Beale had an insurance of only $1,800. Mr. Fine saved most of his furniture, but in a damaged condition. He had $12,000 insurance on his furniture. Mr. Beale's loss, above his insurance, is quite heavy.

GOVERNOR WOODRUFF.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, October 16.—This was Connecticut Day at Jamestown, and it was celebrated under most favorable circumstances. Ideal weather favored the day, and many people were on the grounds, among whom was a big delegation of Connecticut folk.

Governor Woodruff and the official State party arrived at the Exposition grounds early in the day, under escort of the second company of the Governor's Foot Guard, over from Old Point, where the party has been stopping since Monday. Two hundred other Connecticut troops now in camp here, and a large number of exposition officials, met the Governor and his party on their arrival. Escorted by the troops of his State, Governor Woodruff immediately called on Governor Swanson of Virginia. The visit was immediately returned by Governor Swanson, after which the official exercises of the day occurred in the Auditorium, the visiting Governor being escorted there by the troops of his own State and a detachment of the United States regulars now in camp here. Governor Woodruff was met there by Governor Swanson.

Samuel A. Eddy, president of the Connecticut Exposition Commission, presided at the Auditorium exercises. Governor Swanson and Exposition President Tucker made addresses welcoming Connecticut to Virginia and the exposition. These were responded to by Governor Woodruff, after which Dr. Flavel S. Luther, president of Trinity College, delivered the oration of the day.
